Dear FCC:

I believe that it should be the right of the company to decide upon the charges of their phone and airtime minutes. I am aware that the FCC has already had their hand in the current policy, and I hope that the rates do not change on tracfone wireless service. I am not aware of all the technical difficulties involved in keeping my communications running properly, but I am sure that there is a way around changing the current policy. where there is a will there is a way. Please consider this before changing the policy. I use my phone for emergencies, and don't have the money to pay for minutes that I won't use on another plan. Minutes are expensive enough as it is, and I would greatly appreciate anything the FCC could do to avoid this policy change.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please provide a written response indicating the status/resolution of this matter.

Very truly yours,
